WINNING THREE-YEAR-OLDS.

To the American Derby winner, luckless Robert Waddell, belongs the record of having won more races this year than any other horse of his age. However, since he was unplaced almost as many times as he won, his record, on paper, would hardly serve to indicate what a grand race horse he really was when at his best at Washington Park. Kenilworth comes second with his consistently good record of thirteen wins out of eighteen starts. Outside of Robert Waddell, the best of the double figure winners was unquestionably Water Color, a high-class young horse of great speed and a stayer. In 1900 sixteen three-year-olds won ten or more races, while this year the list numbers nineteen. One that barely fell short by virtue of a solitary defeat was Mr. Follansbee's fine performer Roshamp-ton, one of the fastest horses of the year. Horses with records that show extremely well are St. Marcos, Ethel Wheat, Blues, Silverdale, Ten Candles, Maud Gonne, Gold Heels, The Musketeer, Jim Clark, Lady Schorr, Nones, Joe Frey, Hernando, A. D. Gibson, Petra II., The Puritan, Autolight, The Parader, Mon-aka, Outlander, Chuctanunda, Khaki, Paul Clifford, Criterion, Morningside, Monograph, Sannazaro, Smile and Gold Spinner and this list of young horses will be sure to furnish im-portant additions to the list of good handicap horses of 1902.

Below will be found the records to date of the three-year-olds of any considerable im-portance:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

H. O., Cincinnati, O. (1) It was Beau that ran in the first race at New Orleans December 5. (2) The bookmaker should return your money if you bet on Beau as she was not in the race and you could neither win nor lose.

E. H., Chicago. Money wagered on Free Pass, based on the entries in the race which was de-clared off, should be returned, all such wagers being draws and having no relation to the sub-stituted race.

J. L., Chicago. Golden Link's first start was at the Oakland track, California, March 1, 1899. He ran a number of races that year, but did not start in 1900. He is now a five-year-old.

The report that Richard Dwyer would start at Aqueduct next spring is untrue. Mr. Cassidy will still be retained by the association there as starter.

Steeplechases will cut a big figure in the big stake events to be given at St. Louis next year. H. W. Mason, St. Louis, Mo. Yes.

Time, 25, 491, 1:151.

Winner—Ch. f. by Clieведен—Miss Lou. Went to post at 2:16. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Lou Clieведен, with a lucky start and showing the most early speed, managed to last out the journey and is probably of the improving sort. Pat Morrissey went well and in improved form and may be looked for as an early winner with his change of trainer. Midnight Chimes finished fast. Alfred C. failed in the stretch and ran below his form. Favorito is best on a heavy track, but was closing up strongly. Mike Rice ran poorly. Castake was out of place.

Scratched—29722 Torsina, 114; 29683 Gold Baron, 109; 29474 McNamara, 109. Lou Clieведен, show, 5 to 1. Pat Morrissey, show, 1 to 2. Midnight Chimes, show, 7 to 10. Alfred C., show, out.

Time, 26, 511, 1:171, 1:44.

Winner—B. h. by Fonso—Mabel Duffy. Went to post at 2:42. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Windward was shut off in the first furlong but saved ground on the stretch turn and came on fast and strongly in the last eighth. Mont Eagle was outrun to the stretch but finished fast. Expedient, if capably handled, would have been second. He was going strongly at the end. John Welch made up ground from a poor start. Mission showed a fast and apparently winning move on the far turn but quit badly in the stretch. It was too far for St. Anthony and Mazo.

Scratched—29751 Alas, 114. Windward, show, 1 to 2. Mont Eagle, show, evens. Expedient, show, 8 to 5. Mission, show, 2 to 5.

Time, 251, 51, 1:16.

Winner—Br. c. by Midlothian—Salvora. Went to post at 3:08. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won easily; second handily. Milas was best, is steadily improving and is a grand looker. He appeared to be the winner at all stages, was under a stiff pull to the stretch and moved to the front like a flash when called on. Bendara ran like a stayer and finished very strongly. Arthur Ray was unable to sustain his speed after going the first half. He broke running. Schwarzwald, off badly, was prominent to the last furlong. Bol got off badly and recent severe races in mud have probably affected him.

Scratched—29734 The Maniac, 110; 29735 John H. Carr, 110. Milas, show, 2 to 5. Bendara, show, 2 to 1. Arthur Ray, show, 2 to 1. Bol, show, 2 to 5.

29761 FOURTH RACE—7-8 Mile. Purse $400. 3-year-olds. Selling.

Winner—B. f. by St. Andrew—Fannie Louise.
Went to post at 3:59. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Andria appeared in grand condition, was waited with to the stretch, where she came through with a brilliant burst of speed and has evidently recovered her form. Byron Rose put up a speedy and game race and was much the best of the others. Our Lizzie finished fast. Vonzollern looks like a stake colt and showed high class speed, but evidently lacked in condition. He has been very shadowed his bad race. Goal Runner was evidently far from being fit. Sharp Bird is in seemingly bad form and was unable to open his usual long early lead.

Scratched—25019 Nettie Clark, 114; 29703 Sea Queen, 114.

Winner—B. g. by Duncombe—Orange Leaf.
Went to post at 4:23. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Romany, cleverly handled, showed speed enough to maintain a good position to the stretch, where he drew out and finished strongly. Whaleback developed sudden and unexpected speed and will improve with fast track conditions. Meadow Lark broke running, but was outrun in the early stages. He was gaining, however, under repeated swerves at the end. Bagdad went well throughout and can do better. He stumbled to his knees in the last fifty yards when certain of second place. Romany appeared to be clear and drawing away at the time, but the judges held otherwise. Burdock and Torsida ran badly.

Star Cotton was lucky, but ran a good race and hung on stoutly when challenged. Major Mansir began slowly, but made up ground and finished strongly. Monos and Life Line were both badly interfered with on the first turn. Princess Mai was in the deepest going. Saragamp showed early speed instead of loafing as usual, but it was not lasting.

NEWPORT.

Being asked by the representative of a Cincinnati paper last Wednesday about the future of the Newport track, Manager Frank Fowler had this to say:

"Of course there will be a meeting at Newport, but beyond that I can say nothing. We have no plans whatever for the future. I have nothing to say with reference to the action of the people with whom I was allied in the fight against the Western Jockey Club last season. I am not looking for sympathy from any quarter, and I can truthfully say that what happened at Chicago was not surprising to me. I could have foretold it all nearly six months ago had I been so disposed. I am quite sure that had I made application for dates from the Western Jockey Club I would have been accommodated, but I am not built that way. Dates seem to have been handed around rather promiscuously when the southern tracks came along with the contribution box."

"It has been suggested to Manager Fowler that he open Newport at once to the kind of skates that churned the icy mud in the days of Gutenberg, put on a foreign book and get all out of the track possible."

"It was 'Johnny' Fay, the well-known turfman, who made this suggestion."

"Yes, I told Fowler," said Fay, "that I believed the track to be a dead proposition so far as legitimate racing is concerned unless he would get into the Western Jockey Club's band wagon, and since he doesn't seem disposed to do that I told him that if he had a notion of getting any coin out of it he ought to open up right now with a foreign book. He could hang up $150 purses and get all the horses he would need. There wouldn't be any Yankees or Nasturtiums or Abe Franks, to be sure, but they would do to bet on."

"Without a race meeting at least once a year, the Newport track is not self-supporting and it is very clear that Mr. Fowler and his associates have got to give some kind of a meeting or give up the grounds."

"The property is leased from the Gest estate and the Louisville & Nashville Railroad and the expense of its maintenance without a meeting is something like $5,000 per year. Winter racing is never popular and the mere mention of a foreign book to people who have the best interest of the turf at heart is positively nauseating."

By way of comment on the foregoing, it may be said that Newport and Highland Park did not apply to the Western Jockey Club, at its annual meeting, for a license and dates. There is no reason to doubt that such an application would have been successful. There is abundant time, however, for such action and it is more than probable that the applications will be filed by next spring.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The Crescent City Jockey Club spent a lot of money on its track last summer. They have extensive sieges of wet weather down there and years ago, when the track was first opened, the races had to be postponed frequently on account of the track being more like a canal than race course. Of late years, however, the management has improved matters greatly in this respect by constructing a system of miniature canals, which drain the race course thoroughly. Last summer an immense electric pump was secured to force the water out of the canals. Now, no matter how hard or long it rains, the little canals are never clogged up and the water is drained off the track as fast as it falls. Both turns on the track were also reconstructed last summer. Surveyors ascertained that both ends of the track were out of plumb and General Manager Eush lost no time in having the matter attended to. The entire course was also given a new top dressing of loam and both turns were raised considerably. After the track receives several good drenchings and then has had a chance to settle and dry out thoroughly, horsemen believe that George Arnold will surely circle the course in 1:39 or even better. Conservative judges estimate that the track, when at its best, will surely be a second faster than ever before. This information ought to be of some value to backers operating on the races there.

In speaking of the first start of "Bud" Renaud's filly, Eastertime, the New Orleans Picayune of December 10 has this to say: "The conditions at the Fair Grounds yesterday were hardly of a sort to tempt out a big crowd, for a long list of scratches was an assured probabity and a heavy track a certainty. These drawbacks seem to have been forgotten in the desire to see a Mississippi bred maiden make a bid for fame on the turf. The magnet was "Bud" Renaud's filly, Eastertime, by Emin Bey—Chula, foaled at his famous bungalow. She carried the blue and gray and the hopes and dollars of many local followers of the sport, and the fact that she failed to make good did not discourage any one. Renaud is popular, and so will his filly be, even should it be that she never wins a race. This is not intended as a prediction that she will forever disappoint her owner. She is a fair looker, gets over the ground in a shifty sort of way, and is pretty certain to earn a purse before the new year rolls around. When she does Renaud will probably order a treat for all hands, down to pop corn for the ladies and some of Licalzi's roast beef sandwiches for the stable boys."

Among the stables that will race at Saratoga next summer is that handled by John S. Campbell. He says that several good horses will be added to his string which will be shipped east in the spring in order that the horses may become acclimated. Mr. Campbell bought a St. Carlo—Santa Cruz filly recently for $900, and he is training Glendinning and several other useful performers. The well-known trainer but extensively until the present season, but he is now devoting his entire attention to the horses.

Word comes from Gravesend that "Phil" Dwyer has some very promising youngsters for next season. The three that have been entered extensively in stakes are Hemlock, by Albert—Lady Useful; Hackensack, by Hindoo—Bascarte; and Merry Acrobat, by Handspring—Merry Thought, an exceedingly well named colt, by the way. The Dwyer colors were not very prominent last year, but there is no doubt that the Master of Gravesend has come to the belief that it might be very profitable to have a short string of good horses in the future so as to keep in the front rank of owners. The stakes are growing richer, and any one that is fortunate enough to show a good colt is liable to sell him for a drug store price.

Mr. Featherstone has this to say about his stable of horses for the coming year, and his sentiments were endorsed by his trainer, Julius Bauer. "I think we have a great lot of horses in the stalls," said he, "and if we can only have a bit of good luck we'll book many a stake next year."

Julius Bauer is even more enthusiastic than his employer in his opinion about the fifty odd horses he has in charge. Many of them have been named, and some very appropriately, as will be seen by the following list, all of which are entered in the Conacy Island stake events:

Mary Street, by Onondaga—Bonnie Lee.
Bondage, by Halma—Miss Longford.
Peep, by Halma—Bo Peep.
Uranium, by Lamplighter—Elsie B.
Pebble, by Pirate of Penzance—Cicily.
Meemer, by Albert—Hoodoo.
Model Prince, by Prince of Monaco—Middle-march.
Ingold, by Ingoldsby—Radiance.
Benefit, by Fonso—Clarissa.
Favorless, by Favardale—Gray Bonnet.

The New Orleans Picayune of Dec. 11, has this to say of the recent victory of Lou Woods:

"The fourth race, won by Lou Woods, was not alone the event of the afternoon, but a public trial for the Preliminary Derby, which is to be run on Saturday.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey Charles Vandusen has received a letter from a gentleman in Philadelphia, conveying the information that he, the Philadelphian, has been commissioned by an Austrian racing man to secure for him a rider, and he has made Vandusen an offer of $7,500 to ride in Austria the coming season. In all probability Vandusen will accept the offer.

Sonello shows a liking for a sloppy track. He likes to get out in front and run by himself. Disturber, the horse that J. N. Mounce took to California from New York, is getting in good shape and should prove to be a useful breadwinner.

Pirate's Queen was long overdue. In a number of her starts she had shown much speed, especially over a fast track. Her last race, which was in the mud, showed she was coming back to her good form.

Handicapper Brooks of the Oakland Jockey Club announces that the weights for races next week will be on a higher scale, giving such boys as Bullman and Spencer a chance to ride without reducing.

Jockey Booker makes his headquarters at Brighton Beach, and, besides exercising F. C. Frisbie's horses, he is keeping himself fit by taking many other exercise mounts.

Malay has about rounded to his best form and may be regarded as a dangerous factor in all handicaps at New Orleans hereafter, especially when mud prevails.

Word comes from San Francisco that W. E. Applegate Jr. has not been meeting with much success of late in the booking line.
